

2.2 million homes and businesses along the East Coast

have no power after Isaias

By Christina Maxouris, CNN

🕒 Updated 0313 GMT (1113 HKT) August 6, 2020

Cooler temps filter in as Isaias exits 01:39

(CNN) — About 2.2 million homes and businesses have no electrical power after the powerful storm Isaias whipped through the mid-Atlantic and Northeast on Monday and Tuesday.

According to a tally from PowerOutage.US, the outages were concentrated in the tri-state area: As of Wednesday evening, power was out for more than 687,000 customers in New Jersey, some 634,000 customers in New York, and more than 678,000 customers in Connecticut. In all, outages stretched from North Carolina up to Maine.

The storm system killed several people as it ripped through the East Coast after making landfall as a Category 1 hurricane on Ocean Isle Beach, North Carolina, on Monday.

Utility poles were felled Tuesday by Tropical Storm Isaias as it hit Guttenberg, New Jerse

Isaias brought hurricane-force wind gusts to Long Island, according to unofficial reports from National Weather Service Peak wind gusts reached 67 mph in Greenwich, Connecticut, 68 mph at Newark Airport in New Jersey, and over 75 mph in multiple parts of New York's Suffolk County, the weather service sa

Rhode Island Gov. Gina Raimondo said her family was among the 150,000 state residents who lost pow during the storm. Isaias caused more outages in the state than during Superstorm Sandy in 2012, she sa

Tracking Tropical Depression Eleven's path

X Category   - - - Projected path   — Traveled path

See more maps »

The storm moved into southeastern Canada as a post-tropical cyclone, bringing heavy rain and high wind over the province of Quebec.

Track the storm's path

At least 7 dead in storm's path

At least seven people were killed as Tropical Storm Isaias made its way across the East Coast on Monday and Tuesday.

At least two were killed when a tornado struck a mobile home park in Windsor, North Carolina, Bertie County officials said. Twelve people were injured and taken to hospital.

In St. Mary's County in southern Maryland, the driver of a car died after a tree fell on the vehicle's roof. The weather service reported at least three separate tornadoes occurred in the southern part of the state early Tuesday. Two were in St. Mary's County, while the other was in Calvert County, the service said.

People walk through floodwaters Monday in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina

In New York, 60-year-old Mario Siles was found dead inside a 2014 Dodge van "with trauma about the head and body," a New York Police Department spokeswoman said.

In Delaware, an 83-year-old woman was found under a large branch in a pond near her home, Cpl. Jason Hatchell with Delaware State Police told CNN.

---

Police Chief Tim Dickinson.

Eliza Talal had last been seen Tuesday before she walked away from her home, which backs up to a creek, the chief said. "We believe based on the circumstances, that she left the house and somehow went into the water," he added.

Virginia Gov. Ralph Northam announced one storm-related death in Lancaster County.

In Cecil County, Maryland, Isaias flooded a day care, prompting a teacher to carry her 25 students to safety, CNN affiliate WBAL reported.

"Our parking lot flooded," Brittany Austin told the news station. "So, for me to get the children to the parents, I had to wade through the water. I had to sludge my way through a good 6 feet of water to get them out to the parents."

Multiple streets were flooded Tuesday, the affiliate reported.

---

Ripped trees and submerged street

As the storm moved to Canada, it left in its wake flooded US neighborhoods and residents cleaning up.

In Eastwick, Philadelphia, some residents were told to evacuate their homes as streets transformed to rivers Tuesday, CNN affiliate WPVI reported.

"I was sitting in my living room and I was telling my husband water is coming through the back," Tan Andrews told the affiliate. "It was already flooded. Then the police captain came and told us to evacuate. My house is flooded."

@Christie_Ileto

79th and Lindbergh is under water. Multiple buildings from an apartment complex near Darby Creek have flooded.

@6abc

4:02 PM · Aug 4, 2020 from Philadelphia, PA

♡ 25    💬 20 people are Tweeting about this

In the northeastern part of the city, roofs were torn off, wires were on the ground and residents told the news station they saw powerful winds ripping trees off the ground

"Something out of a movie, that's the only way I can explain it," one resident told the news station.

CNN's Michael Guy, Eric Levenson, Melissa Alonso and Rebekah Riess contributed to this report.

Weather

US Politics

Business

Health

Entertainment

Tech

Style

Travel

Sports

Videos

Features

More

Weather

Weather

FOLLOW CNN

Terms of Use Privacy Policy Cookie Settings AdChoices About Us Modern Slavery Act Statement

Advertise with us CNN Store Newsletters Transcripts License Footage CNN Newsource Sitemap

© 2020 Cable News Network. Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

CNN Sans™ & © 2016 Cable News Network.